

Shraddha Kapoor Spills The Beans On Her Appearance In Varun Dhawan's Bhediya 2

Shraddha Kapoor, known for her humble attitude and strong acting skills is currently attending the ongoing Red Sea International Film Festival 2024 in Saudi Arabia. Amidst this, she engaged in a candid conversation where she revealed some exciting details about her upcoming projects.

In an interview with Pinkvilla, Shraddha Kapoor opened up about her upcoming projects. The actress was asked if she would be a part of Varun Dhawan's Bhediya 2. For context, in a pre-credit scene of her last film, Stree 2, Bhaskar (played by Dhawan) asks another character in the movie, Jana (played by Abhishek Banerjee) to set him up with Stree (played by Shraddha). Although Jana declines, Bhaskar continues to plead with him. This made the audience curious whether Shraddha would be part of Bhediya 2.

Shraddha said, "Only time will tell if any more cameos of mine come up in any of the other Maddock films. I don't know yet." The actress also mentioned that she will soon announce her upcoming projects. She said, "Very soon, I will share the films that I will be doing, which I will be shooting for next year."

In the same conversation, Shraddha was also asked about her opinion of Kiran Rao's directorial Laapataa Ladies being India's entry for the Oscars 2025. Talking about the same, the actress, heaped praises on the film and admitted that she loved it. She said, "It's so amazing to see that good films are getting their due and appreciation." The social drama also stars Nitanshi Goel, Pratibha Ranta, Ravi Kishan, and Sparsh Shrivastava, among others, in key roles.

She further expressed, "I feel any film that gets its due and recognition is a great feeling, and it only sets a standard. It only inspires more people to be true to the craft," adding, "People will know that acha thik hai, my focus should be on doing good work or making good films, and that's it. If I do that, people will be watching."

Meanwhile, Shraddha's last film Stree 2 became the highest-grossing film of all time after collecting nearly Rs 580 crore at the box office.

Janhvi Kapoor 'Got Out Of Her PJs After Years' And The Result Is Gorgeous

Janhvi Kapoor has been constantly rising high in her career and garnering praise for her versatile performances on-screen. She was last seen in the South action drama, Devara: Part 1, co-starring Jr NTR. What makes her fans hooked to her social media handles is her gorgeous looks. She keeps serving fashion goals with glimpses of her latest looks. Recently, she revealed what she did so fashionably after coming out from her lazy self.

On Instagram, Janhvi Kapoor shared a video from one of her latest photoshoots as she got decked up for gracing a Fashion Entrepreneur Fund's star-studded red-carpet event. In the video, the actress was posing for the lens while showing her best self in a silver-hued ensemble. Alongside it, she revealed a hilarious anecdote proving her fashionable front. She wrote, "Got out of my PJs after years, so really made the most of it." It clarified how she made the most of her time by doing what she loved the most.

The Ulajh actress also posted photos of the same look on Instagram. For the event, she picked a grey-hued outfit including a corset top teamed with a pencil skirt. The top featured a blingy element alongside a plunging neckline and noodle strap that simply raised the temperature here. Janhvi teamed her floor-touching skirt, which accentuated her curves, with a golden buckle-strapped belt.

For accessories, she picked a matching pump heel, a classic watch and stud earrings. For makeup, she went for a contoured and highlighted base with glossy peach lips, defined brows, and bold eyes, featuring brown eyeshadow along with thin strokes of eyeliner. Messy, wavy tresses cascading down with her ensemble made her look perfect for the evening.

On the work front, Janhvi Kapoor will be next seen in Shashank Khaitan's directorial Sunny Sanskari Ki Tulsi Kumari, co-starring with Varun Dhawan. The film also features Rohit Saraf, Sanya Malhotra, Manish Paul, and Akshay Oberoi in key roles.

Shehnaaz Gill, In Her Maroon Ethnic Ensemble, Is Everyone's Favourite 'Punjabi Kudi'

Shehnaaz Gill is one of the celebrated figures in the entertainment industry and has been winning hearts since her debut. In addition to her acting skills, the actress keeps turning heads with her striking fashion sense. She took the internet by storm again with her latest post, showcasing her inner Punjabi kudi. The post features several pictures of herself and fans cannot get enough of her charm.

Shehnaaz took to Instagram to share her latest picture with a beautiful poetic line in the caption. It read, "Mit jayega gunahon ka tasawwur is jahan se Ghalib, agar ho yakeen ki khuda dekh raha hai," which roughly translates to, "The memory of sins will be erased from this place, Ghalib, if you believe that God is watching." In the pictures, she was wearing a maroon suit, featuring embroidery. She tied her hair in a middle-parted sleek bun and completed her look with jhumkas and mojaris. She opted for subtle makeup featuring nude lipstick, a matte foundation base and mascara.

The post amassed several likes and comments from the fans, where many dropped fire and heart emojis to express their love. Reacting to the post, a fan wrote, "Shehnaaz Gill, the beauty." Another user commented, "So beautiful dress .. you are looking so gorgeous, keep shining." "You're absolutely beautiful," a comment read. Yet another fan wrote, "Queen of our heart."

On the professional front, Gill last appeared in an item song, Sajna Ve Sajna, in Rajkumar Rao's Vicky Vidya Ka Woh Wala Video. In the song, she looked stunning in a bold blue outfit while performing electrifying dance moves. She also announced her next project, tentatively titled, Production No. 1. This Punjabi film is helmed by Amarjit Singh Saron. The actress also has Sab First Class in her lineup, alongside Varun Sharma. In the past, she also starred in Bhumi Pednekar's Thank You For Coming, alongside Anil Kapoor, Karan Kundrra, Kusha Kapila and Dolly Singh.

Laapataa Ladies' Nitanshi Goel Captures Hearts With Confidence And Smile

Nitanshi Goel, who gained recognition for her impressive Bollywood debut in Laapataa Ladies, has remained in the spotlight after her film was selected for the Oscars 2025. The young actress, who played the role of Phool opposite Sparsh Shrivastava's Deepak Kumar and Pratibha Ranta's Jaya Tripathi Singh/Pushpa Rani, continues to win hearts wherever she goes. Recently, Nitanshi was spotted by the paparazzi in Mumbai, where she attended a meeting. During the outing, the actress confidently posed for the photographers, while flashing her signature bright smile and spreading positivity with her charming presence.

In Kiran Rao's directorial, Nitanshi was seen wearing a saree throughout the film, but she knows how to turn heads in any outfit. During her recent outing in the city, she looked absolutely gorgeous in a trendy and casual attire. The actress decided to wear black top paired with brown pants, along with silver heels. She kept her look simple yet stunning by leaving her hair open, while opting for minimal makeup and accessories.

Nitanshi Goel starrer Laapataa Ladies has been selected for the Oscars 2025 in the Best International Feature Film category. The exciting announcement was made back in September, ahead of the Academy Awards, which is set to take place next year. Other than this recognition, the film was also screened at major international film festivals, including 48th Toronto International Film Festival and Indian Film Festival of Melbourne.

To connect with a global audience, filmmaker Kiran Rao even decided to change the title of the film to Lost Ladies.

Speaking about films Oscar entry, Nitanshi in an interview with India Today previously said, "My phone has been ringing off the hook since I saw the news. But honestly, I'm in no position to complain. We all had a little celebration moment in our group chat on WhatsApp. I was eagerly waiting for confirmation from Kiran ma'am that what I was hearing in the news was true. I wanted someone to pinch me. I even had my own little dance party in my room. Hopefully, it means we'll be dancing together all the way to the Oscars and, fingers crossed, getting that trophy."

Other than Nitanshi Goel, Sparsh Shrivastava and Pratibha Ranta, Laapataa Ladies also stars Ravi Kishan in key roles.

Cannes 2024 has finally kick-started and celebs from all around the globe will be seen gracing the red carpet with their stunning looks. Amid the glitz and glamour of the ongoing 2024 Cannes Film Festival, a look at the unforgettable presence of Sunny Leone at last year's edition.