

BJP Leaders visit shelling-affected areas in Jammu to ensure well-being of victims

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, MAY 10

In response to the recent unprovoked shelling and drone attacks by Pakistan in Jammu, a delegation of senior BJP leaders visited the affected locations in Rehari and Shivalik Puram (Janipur) areas of Jammu, and the injured at Government Medical College Hospital, Bakshi Nagar.

Sat Sharma, President, J&K BJP, Sunil Sharma, Leader of Opposition, Jugal Kishore Sharma, MP (Lok Sabha), Sham Lal Sharma, Vice-President & MLA, Arvind Gupta, MLA, Adv. Rajesh Gupta, District President, Kushant Prajapati, Sahil Mahajan, Keshav Chopra, Sunita Gupta, Ravikant, Ravish Mengi, and others were also present on the occasion.

During the visit to the shelling-affected localities, the BJP leaders interacted with the residents whose homes and properties suffered damage due to the attacks. They assured the local population of full support from the party and government authorities. The delegation took detailed stock of the damages and emphasized the need for prompt relief and rehabilitation.

At the Government College Hospital, Bakshi Nagar, the leaders met with injured civilians and inquired about their condition. They appreciated the efforts of the medical staff and urged hospital authorities to remain fully prepared to handle any medical emergencies efficiently and with utmost professionalism.

Speaking on the occasion, Sat Sharma expressed deep anguish over the combative situation caused by Pakistan's continuous aggression on borders and targeted attacks on civilian areas. He stated, "Instead of curbing terrorist activities, Pakistan has resorted to irrational and irresponsible conduct. The BJP stands firmly with the people in this hour of crisis. We are working in coordination with the administration to ensure essential supplies like dry ration, milk, and medicines reach those in need. Blood donation camps and other relief measures have already been initiated."

Sunil Sharma reiterated the BJP's commitment to the people and assured that the party is actively following up with the administration to expedite relief operations. He appealed to the citizens to stay united and follow government directives word for word to maintain safety and order during this challenging time.

Jugal Kishore Sharma emphasized the importance of remaining vigilant while avoiding panic. "People must adopt all protective measures and cooperate fully with security and administrative authorities," he said. "Being prepared is important, but creating chaos helps no one."

BJP holds review meeting amid heightened cross-border tensions

HIMALAYAN MAIL NEWS
JAMMU, MAY 10

Amidst the escalating cross-border hostilities, including heavy shelling, drone incursions, and missile attacks from Pakistan, the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), Jammu & Kashmir unit, convened a review meeting at party headquarters, Trikuta Nagar, Jammu.

Sat Sharma, President, J&K BJP, Sunil Sharma, Leader of Opposition, Ashok Koul, General Secretary (organization), Kavinder Gupta, former Deputy Chief Minister, Aseem Gupta, Vice-President, J&K BJP, besides other leaders were present in the meeting.

In his address, Sat Sharma expressed grave concern over the continued irrational aggression by Pakistan, which has caused distress in several districts of Jammu & Kashmir.

Sharma highlighted the tense situation due to relentless shelling, firing, drone and missile attacks from across the border, which resulted in casualties, injuries, and damage to property and migration. "Our leadership and cadre must remain vigilant, assist the administration, and dedicate themselves to serving the nation during these critical times," he said.

Reviewing the necessary arrangements and preparations to counter the tense situation, Sat Sharma stressed on a pro-active role to be played by the BJP leadership along with the whole party cadre.

Sunil Sharma stressed the increased attentiveness and activism on the part of party cadre. He also stressed on the coordination with the administration as a consistent phenomenon during this time.

Ashok Koul highlighted various areas like border migration, help to the needy, incoming and outgoing of people to and from Jammu, blood requirement, medicines, eatables, and other areas which require individual attention.

Kavinder Gupta asked all to remain vigilant about the misinformation campaigns that are being initiated from across the borders. He asked the party leaders to create awareness among general masses to thwart any such attempt.

Tilak Raj Gupta, Prof. Kulbhushan Mohtra, Ved Sharma, Puneet Mahajan and others were also present on the occasion.

Gandhi Global Family (GGF) J&K successfully organized its third Blood Donation Camp today at Government Medical College (GMC), Jammu. The camp was held under the supervision of Dr. S.P. Varma, President, GGF J&K and Dr. Mitali Sharma, Assistant Professor, GMC Jammu, in the presence of Dr. Ashutosh Gupta, Principal, GMC Jammu and Dr. Sanjogita Soodan, Deputy Medical Superintendent, Super Speciality Hospital Jammu. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from GGF executives, members and dedicated volunteers.

This noble initiative aimed to promote voluntary blood donation, particularly in the context of the ongoing war in the subcontinent, including the cross-border firing along the Line of Control (LOC) and the International Border in Jammu & Kashmir.

It is pertinent to mention that Dr. Alka Sharma, President, GGF Jammu Women, was the first to donate blood at the camp, setting an inspiring example for others. She was followed by other members Dr. Nitam Sharma, Er. Ankush Varma and many other volunteers from the civil society.

GGF J&K extends heartfelt gratitude to all blood donors, medical professionals and volunteers who contributed to the success of the camp. The organization reaffirmed its unwavering commitment to humanitarian service and community welfare. It also announced plans to continue organizing such impactful camps across Jammu & Kashmir.

The camp was further graced by several prominent dignitaries, including Dr. Robert Robin Gill, Dr. Dinesh Gupta, Ch. Mumtaz Ahmad Kabir, Mr. Daniel Nair, Dr. Parvinder Kaur, Mrs Punit Kaur, Mr. Amit Varma and Mr. Manish Joshi, whose presence and encouragement added significant value to the cause.

Earlier, GGF's first camp was conducted in Srinagar in collaboration with the Care Foundation, while the second was successfully held at GMC Rajouri by the respective GGF district teams.
