

Kartik Aaryan’s THIS co-star to replace Janhvi Kapoor in Dostana 2 as film gets revived?

Kartik Aaryan, Janhvi Kapoor, and Lakshya were set to star in Dostana 2, but the film was shelved. However, it looks like the project is getting revived. Sreeleela, who is starring alongside Kartik in Anurag Basu’s romantic drama, will reportedly be replacing Janhvi in the Dostana sequel. Regarding the male leads, Vikrant Massey might headline the film with Lakshya.

According to a recent report in News18 Showsha, the story of Dostana 2 will remain the same as it was planned before, but there have been changes in the cast and the director. As per the portal’s source, the makers are considering Sreeleela to replace Janhvi Kapoor as the female lead.

“The makers of Dostana 2 decided to recast the film, hoping to feature a set of actors who haven’t shared screen space in the past. It will indeed be interesting to see her chemistry with her co-stars,” said the source.

The Dharma Productions film was previously supposed to be directed by Collin D’Cunha. However, the report further mentioned that it will now most likely be helmed by Advait Chandan. The movie will apparently go on floors in September 2025 or early 2026.

Earlier, Mid-Day revealed that Dostana 2 might be revived. The portal shared that Lakshya would remain a part of the cast while Vikrant Massey is the frontrunner to replace Kartik Aaryan.

Meanwhile, Kartik Aaryan and Sreeleela are currently shooting for an untitled romantic drama with director Anurag Basu. The film’s announcement video featured Kartik in a rugged look with messy hair and a long beard. He was seen playing a guitar on the stage and singing the song Tu Meri Zindagi Hai from the movie Aashiqui. There were also romantic moments between him and Sreeleela.

The film is scheduled for a grand release on Diwali 2025. It will clash with Ayushmann Khurrana and Rashmika Mandanna’s Mad-dock Horror Comedy Universe movie Thama.

Kartik Aaryan is currently working on two projects with Dharma Productions, Naagzilla and Tu Meri Main Tera Main Tera Tu Meri.

When Katrina Kaif fan-girled over Kareena Kapoor Khan’s eye color: ‘I would like to change...’

Katrina Kaif, renowned for her unwavering dedication to fitness, has consistently impressed fans with her rigorous workout routines. From strength training to high-intensity interval training (HIIT), she maintains a disciplined regimen, often working out seven days a week for one to three hours. Her commitment to health and fitness is evident in her performances, especially in action-packed roles like Zoya in the Tiger franchise, where she underwent intense physical training to execute demanding stunts.

Despite her fitness achievements, Katrina once expressed a desire to change certain aspects of herself. In a 2019 interview with Filmfare, she candidly shared, “I would like to change my metabolism so that I don’t have to go to the gym. Then I would change my eye color to blue or green, like Kareena’s [Kareena Kapoor Khan].” This rare moment of vulnerability showcased her admiration for Kareena’s striking features.

Professionally, Katrina continues to captivate audiences with her versatile performances. In 2023, she reprised her role as Zoya in Tiger 3, delivering a powerful performance that contributed to the film’s impressive box office success. Following that, she starred in Merry Christmas (2024), a thriller directed by Sriram Raghavan, where she portrayed Maria. The film, shot simultaneously in Hindi and Tamil, received critical acclaim for its storytelling and Katrina’s nuanced performance. ?

On the personal front, Katrina Kaif shares a warm and grounded bond with her husband, actor Vicky Kaushal.

The couple, who married in December 2021, continues to charm fans with their affectionate and candid moments, whether celebrating each other’s professional milestones or enjoying quiet get-aways.

Katrina often shares glimpses of their life together on social media, from cozy at-home celebrations to fun travel memories. Vicky, too, has praised Katrina’s calming presence and how she brings balance to his life. Their chemistry, both on and off camera, reflects a deep sense of understanding and admiration, making them one of Bollywood’s most loved couples.

Kusha Kapila is getting prettier by the day. The light-eyed influencer was among one of the best-dressed celebs on the red carpet on Wednesday in her tantalising embellished black corset gown.a

When Deepika Padukone and Alia Bhatt had to use the men’s loo in Berlin and the reason will leave you in splits

Alia Bhatt and Deepika Padukone are two of the most celebrated actresses in the industry. They have delivered numerous hit films and have carved special places in our hearts. The duo has also consistently showcased their strong bond, defying netizens’ speculations about their friendship. From cheering each other on social media to celebrating one another’s successes, they consistently serve major friendship goals. Let’s take a look back at the time when Deepika hilariously revealed that she and Alia had to use the men’s restroom in Berlin. She shared that they faced a long queue outside the women’s restroom during a Coldplay concert, which led to a spontaneous decision.

Deepika Padukone and Alia Bhatt appeared on the first episode of Koffee With Karan Season 6 and made some surprising revelations. The Singham Again actress recalled the time when she and Alia attended the Coldplay concert and spent quality time together. She mentioned that the outing was completely unplanned but turned into a memorable night.

Talking about using the men’s restroom, Deepika shared that there was a “not-so-popular” song playing at the concert in Berlin, and they seized the moment to make a quick restroom run.

The Fighter actress added, “Alia and I ran to the bathroom, and there was this long queue outside the women’s loo, it was packed. So we just ran into the men’s loo. There were like five men, we pushed them, went into the men’s loo, finished, and came out.”

Karan Johar couldn’t hold back and chimed in, saying, “It’s all okay” as they were in Europe. Alia Bhatt further added that she saw a completely different side of Deepika Padukone that day. She shared that she had always seen her as “very poised and proper” before the concert

She also mentioned that Deepika wanted to have French fries while entering the stadium for the concert. This left the Love & War actress surprised, wondering how Deepika managed to stay so fit despite indulging. The funny part? She ended up joining her in the cheat meal!

Rajkummar Rao did not have sangeet or haldi in his wedding with Patralekhaa and the reason is too cool to miss Bollywood actor Rajkummar Rao has given us many hit films, and fans are equally excited for his next one, Bhool Chuk Maaf. He will be starring alongside Baby John fame Wamiqa Gabbi. The film will be released on Amazon Prime Video on May 16 after skipping theatrical release. Now, he opened up on his wedding with actress Patralekhaa and revealed that they skipped traditional sangeet and haldi ceremonies, opting instead for themed parties to celebrate their special day.

In an interview with IANS, Rajkummar Rao recalled his wedding with Patralekhaa and said, “At my wedding, we didn’t have ceremonies like sangeet or haldi. We just had parties.”

He further shared that they had parties on day and night and even had a post-wedding party. He added that they had theme parties like a pool party and a white party.

The Stree 2 actor was also asked if working on Bhool Chuk Maaf felt like a party, since it revolved around a wedding. He shared that they partied just at night on the set because of the scorching heat during the day.

Filming took place in May-June, and despite having ACs running, the crew still felt the intense heat. Rajkummar added that the experience was filled with fun, both on-screen and off-screen. He shared, “No one takes themselves so seriously. Everyone loves their work and made the film with complete passion.”

Meanwhile, Rajkummar Rao’s upcoming film Bhool Chuk Maaf was earlier set to hit the theaters on May 9. But the makers postponed it again and will now release it on Amazon Prime Video directly on May 16.

Apart from him, the film also stars Wamiqa Gabbi, Sanjay Mishra, Seema Pahwa, Zakir Hussain, Raghubir Yadav, Ishitiyak Khan, and Anubha Fatehpuria in pivotal roles. Directed by Karan Sharma and produced by Dinesh Vijan, the story revolves around a wedding that goes awry during the Haldi ceremony.

For the unversed, Rajkummar Rao and Patralekhaa first crossed paths while working on a music video and began dating in 2010. The couple tied the knot in an intimate ceremony in Chandigarh after 11 years of dating, i.e, on November 15, 2021.